Kelowna Trampoline Athletes Bring Home Medals

Kelowna Trampoline athletes competed at the Canada Cup this past weekend in Saint-Hyacinthe, Québec.

Curtis Gerein, and Ethan McLeary both brought home two medals a piece, while Jade Wolf brought home one medal.

Gerein competed in the Men's Junior division winning the double mini trampoline and finishing with a silver medal in the Men's Junior Trampoline event. Gerein sustained a major arm injury less than one year ago and after undergoing successful surgery he is back in action at the top his division which is also one level higher than he was competing last season.

McLeary also finished with one gold and one silver medal in Quebec. McLeary is the reigning Canadian Champion in the Men's Novice 10-14 year olds in all three events, the double mini trampoline, individual trampoline, and tumbling. McLeary won the double mini event again at Canada Cup and finished with a silver medal in Men's Novice 10-14 year old tumbling.

Wolf competed at her first Canada Cup and brought home a bronze medal in the Women's Novice 15+ division.

Nelson Murray finished in fourth place on both the double mini trampoline and on synchronized trampoline with partner Ben Goossen in the Men's Junior division.

Goossen also finished in fourth place in the Men's Open division.
