Canada Cup

Kelowna trampoline athletes competed at the annual Canada Cup. This competition is the last of three qualification events for the 2009 world championships this fall in St. Petersburg, Russia with athletes in various age categories vying for a spot on the Canadian team.

Three male athletes from Okanagan Gymnastics brought home medals after this competition. All three earned themselves silver medals in their respective category and event.

Luke Friesen earned the silver in the Men's Senior Double Mini trampoline event. Curtis Gerein earned his silver medal in the Men's Youth Double Mini trampoline. Trevor Stirling won second place in the Men's 10-14 year old category in the Individual Trampoline event.

Friesen has qualified for the Canadian World Team competing in the Men's Double Mini Trampoline while Gerein has earned himself a spot Canadian team competing in the Age Group competition following World Championships. He will be competing on Double Mini Trampoline as well as on the Individual Trampoline.
