

MEDIA RELEASE

January 25, 2009

Kelowna Dominates at Home Competition

Kelowna hosted the annual Cobweb Invitational at Okanagan Gymnastics Centre last weekend. This competition is meant to be a season opener to get the athletes warmed up for more important competitions later in the season. Once again the home club Okanagan Gymnastics Centre dominated.

Top finishers at this year's Cobweb Invitational were Nicole Pavia, Vanessa Lalonde, Sugar Tiner, and Makinli Handley. These athletes all won their categories.

Pavia won the Pre-Novice Aspire category finishing with a first place on beam, second place on vault, and third place on uneven bars.

Lalonde won the Provincial 1 Argo category taking home golds on uneven bars, balance beam, and floor exercise.

Tiner won the Provincial 4 (all ages) category. She also took first place on the vault and the floor exercise. This is Tiner's first competitive season in British Columbia as she just moved to Kelowna from California.

Handley won the Provincial 5 (all ages) category in her first year in the Provincial 5 category. She also won the balance beam and the floor.

Other medal winners from this competition were:

Pre-Novice Aspire category

Lindy Drope finished with a bronze medal on the vault, beam, and floor and a second in the all around.

Carissa Sebelius finished with a gold on the vault, a silver on beam and floor and a bronze in the all around.

Emma Morel finished with a gold on the bars and the floor.

Julia Pasutto took home a silver on the bars

Provincial 1 Argo

Jenna Mick won the vault and finished with a silver on the bars, floor, and all around.

Selina Habib finished third in the all around.

Grace Fecht in her first competitive season finished with a bronze on vault and a silver on beam.

Sally Haaheim also in her first competitive season finished with a bronze on the bars and beam.

Provincial 2 Argo

Brielle Culbert bronze on bars, gold on floor, and silver in the all around.

Brooke Murray finished with a gold on vault, silver on bars, and bronze on beam and in the all around.

Hannah Butcher took a silver on beam and floor.

Provincial 2 Tyro

Angela Lalonde finished with silver on floor, bronze on bars, beam and all around.

Taylor Schell won gold on both bars and beam.

Hunter Geiger finished with a bronze on vault and a silver on bars.

Provincial 3 (All Ages)

Madison Arnold won the uneven bars and finished with a bronze on the beam.

Karlee Keewatin-Smith finished with a bronze on vault and floor.

Provincial 4 (All Ages)

Alison Watters finished with a gold on the bars and beam and took a bronze on vault and floor and finished with a silver in the all around.

Miranda Pineau finished with a silver on the vault and the floor.

Provincial 5 (All Ages)

Kelly Atamanchuk won the vault and uneven bars and took silver on the beam, floor, and all around.

For further information contact:

HEATHER IVANITZ

OKANAGAN GYMNASTICS CENTRE, 365 HARTMAN ROAD, KELOWNA, BC, V1X 2MP

Phone: 250 765 0888, Fax: 250 765 0890, email, ogc@telus.net, website: www.okanagangymnastics.com
