Tomlin Takes Top Spot at Western Canada Cup

Trampoline athletes competed at Western Canada Cup in Airdrie Alberta representing Team BC. Six out of nine of the Team BC athletes call Kelowna home and these athletes brought home a total of eleven medals.

Hailey Tomlin competed in the Women's Level A category on the trampoline and double mini events and Level B in tumbling where she earned the gold medal.

Hailey Tomlin and Chloe LaBoucan-Bradeen competed in the Women's Level A Synchronized trampoline category and earned a gold medal for their partnership and performance.

After Tomlin's strong performance on four events she earned the individual All Around title.

Kalin Judson competed in the Men's Level A category and earned gold in the individual trampoline event as well as the synchronized trampoline event. He also earned himself a bronze medal on the double mini trampoline.

Stephanie Hill competed in the Women's Level B category and earned two gold medals. She won her first gold in the individual trampoline, a silver medal on the double mini trampoline and her second gold medal in the synchronized trampoline with her partner Cami Hill.

Cami Hill also earned a silver medal in the Women's Level B trampoline event.

Zoe Paquet was the sixth athlete to represent Team BC from Kelowna. Paquet's top placing was a sixth place on the Women's Level B trampoline.
